

Part 4: KS3 English Activity Sheet

Centenary of the First World War

Title: CREATIVE COMPETITION - Create a poem to say Thank You to the First World War generation

Starter:

Can you think of a poem that is brilliant?

--

What are the specific reasons for this poem being so effective?

Activities:

Think of the most important reason for saying 'Thank You'. Write it down and explain YOUR choice.

Which style would be most suitable for your poem? Explain why.

Write down five key words that should be included in your poem.

Your Poem:

Start your poem in the space below. Don't be afraid to just go for it using some of your answers above to help you. No one expects you to get it right first time! It should take several attempts and many changes before you are happy...good luck!
